

Add business and general insurances to your product line-up through a Nadic partnership

Grow your client base with complementary risk management solutions

A partnership with Nadic Insurance Brokers can provide life agents with the opportunity to expand upon the services they offer clients to include business and general insurances.

As an Australian Financial Services Licence holder, we can deliver your clients with insurances that complement your own, such as professional indemnity, business packages, travel insurance, home and contents and motor insurance.

The partnership can be structured to provide you with shared commissions and other financial incentives, as well as regular reporting. We can also provide you with referrals for life insurance quotes.

With Nadic, you can be confident your clients are in safe hands: since 1966, we have developed deep industry knowledge and experience, connections to leading underwriters, and a strong client service ethic.

NADIC.COM.AU
SINCE 1966

Nadic partnership benefits

The benefits of partnering with Nadic are numerous.

- We offer generous financial incentives and regular reporting for partners
- We're an industry-recognised and accredited full-service brokerage
- We have deep industry knowledge and experience, and access to leading underwriters
- We provide complete risk management services, from quote to claims management
- We meet stringent compliance requirements under our Australian Financial Services Licence
- Our clients enjoy access to a personal broker and industry-qualified support staff
- We're a member of the Steadfast group, a network of professional, carefully selected experts with proven business acumen.

Insurance services for clients

With a Nadic partnership, you can provide your clients with access to a range of business and general insurances, including:

- ✓ Professional indemnity insurance
- ✓ Packaged business insurances
- ✓ Travel insurance
- ✓ Home and contents insurance, and
- ✓ Motor insurance.

Talk with Mitchell James, Director, today

Mitchell James is a director at Nadic Insurance Brokers, where he provides risk management services for the firm's strategic clients in Sydney, and manages relationships with leading Australian underwriters.

Mitchell re-joined Nadic following a period underwriting for an international agency across the UK, Asia Pacific and Americas.

He provides clients with a balanced perspective on insurance risk management practises, and is interested in identifying and informing clients of emerging risks.

Nadic is a leading insurance brokerage dedicated to providing easy-to-understand and packaged premium options for businesses and individuals. We set ourselves apart by understanding that each client is unique; we listen to them to understand what's important and to apply our industry knowledge to provide them with a best-fit solution. But above all, we keep it simple.